

Swell, 10 Years Later

New work by Amy Berk, Carolyn Castaño, and Megan Wilson

June 30 - August 5, 2006

opening reception: Friday, June 30, 6:00 - 9:00 PM

In 1996, Meridian Gallery presented the exhibition Swell: new work by Amy Berk, Carolyn Castaño, and Megan Wilson, a humorous and glamorously serious take on femininity, its illusions, and its power in the 1990s. In Swell, 10 Years Later, Berk, Castaño, and Wilson explore issues surrounding them today as established artists in their thirties including career plateaus, pitfalls and pratfalls, careerism, and the three m's: marriage, motherhood, and maturation.

Featuring:

Penguin Nation* - Video, sculpture and drawings by Amy Berk

Tropical Baby* - Mixed media paintings by Carolyn Castaño

You're Not A Wave, You're The Water* and Night Bloom - Installations by Megan Wilson
